14. Risk warning

Investing in unlisted, off-market and/or illiquid Assets involves a number of risks and challenges. If you choose to acquire Assets displayed on the Website you need to be aware of and accept:

- (a) Loss of capital – most unlisted businesses and assets fail and if you acquire an Asset it is significantly more likely that you may lose all of your investment than that you will see a return of capital or a profit. You should not invest more money on an Asset displayed on the Website than you can afford to lose without altering your standard of living;
- (b) Illiquidity – the market and the value of any Assets displayed on the Website must be considered to be illiquid and likely to remain illiquid. Any Buyer Member must seek their own independent expert advice as to the value, suitability and prospects for any Assets to be acquired in any manner by a Buyer Member. PrimaryMarkets is irrevocably released and forever quit claim by any Member in relation to the value, suitability and prospects for any Assets displayed on the Website;
- (c) Diversification – investing in unlisted businesses and Assets should only be done as part of a diversified portfolio. This means that you should invest relatively small amounts in multiple businesses rather than a lot in one or two businesses. It also means that you should invest only a small proportion of your investable capital in early-stage businesses as an asset class, with the majority of your investable capital invested in safer, more liquid assets.

15. No investment advice

The content of the Website is purely factual information and does not involve any recommendation or statement of opinion by us or any other person. It is not intended to be personal or general financial advice, does not take into account your objectives, financial situation or needs and you should not treat it as such. Before you make any investment decisions, you should obtain professional independent investment advice and consider any relevant disclosure documents. PrimaryMarkets does not endorse or recommend or advise investment in any securities or investments referred to on the Website. Nothing on the Website is, or shall be, construed as an offer of, or an invitation to take up, securities or investments.

16. Disclosure of interest

PrimaryMarkets and Intermediary Members and Seller Members may receive payments, commissions or other commercial benefits from each other in connection with these Terms. PrimaryMarkets and its associates may hold securities or an interest in a Seller Member and/or Assets displayed on the Website.

17. Compliance

PrimaryMarkets complies with the prescriptive requirements of being an Authorised Representative of Helmsec Global Capital Pty Limited ABN 77 129 825 798 Australian Financial Services Licence Holder No. 334838 as well as the general compliance with the provisions of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth). If you have any queries as to how to interpret these laws/regulations you should contact your own lawyer.

18. Jurisdiction and law

These Terms are governed by and must be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New South Wales, Australia. You submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of that State and the Commonwealth of Australia in respect of all matters arising out of or relating to these Terms, their performance and subject matter.

19. International Use

We make no representation or warranty that any information or content accessible through the Website are appropriate or available for use in locations outside Australia.

20. Severability

Each provision of these Terms is severable from the others and no severance of a provision will affect any other provision.
